LANCASTER.

It is reported that W. H. Anderson, a prominent farmer near Preachersville, died this (Thursday) morning.

Miss Jennie May Arnold, the 11-year-old daughter of H. C. Arnold, of Garrison, was married Wednesday to Lewis Dewison, of Madison.

Judge Burnside will not hold the regular session of the county court on Monday 26th, it being considered a holiday, since Christmas comes on Sunday 25th.

The Baptist church of Lancaster, has called Rev. J. C. Massee, of Bartow, Fla., to fill the vacancy caused in the pulpit by the resignation of Rev. T. H. Campbell.

County Clerk Duncan issued marriage licenses to E. L. Prewitt, of Madison, and Miss Annie Prather, of this county, and George Garner and Miss Mollie Wilson. Deputy Sheriff Alex Walker was married at McCleary on Wednesday night to Miss Carrie Har- den.

The county court selected J. N. Den- ny and Ed Price; and the Lancaster and Stanford turnpike road, through Capt. T. A. Elkin, selected T. B. Robinson, as commissioners to put in value on the 3½ miles of that road in this county. It is said that they will recommend the payment of $1,300, which will likely be accepted and condemnation proceedings will be avoided.

Circuit court adjourned on Wednesday, after much business of local interest was disposed of. Two Negroes were sent to the penitentiary, one for entering a house and stealing $35. The indictment against Tol Gill for con- cealing stolen property, was dismissed. The juries were paid $824. The grand jury returned 22 indictments, two for perjury and most of the others for misdemeanors.

Rev. H. C. Morrison, a brilliant minister, began a protracted meeting at the Methodist church about 10 days ago, but owing to a want of interest, the meeting was discontinued on Monday night. I have it, on good authority, that he said that members of other churches sat in his audience and, from pure stubbornness, refused to come to the altar, and that they are as good for him as 5 cents is for a ginger cake; that many had said that they were glad he came here, but that they were liars. It is also stated that he said that the Savior did not shed aton- ing blood enough to save Lancaster. I have always said, and I say yet, that the Methodists have more zeal and warmth in their religion than the members of some other denominations, and I do not censure them, as a body, for these expressions, but coming from the source they do, they are certainly in bad taste. If the doctrine of sanctification, as he sees it, will do any good, let it be preached from every pulpit, but I fear that such expressions will have a tendency to cool the ardor of the advocates of that doctrine.

RELIGIOUS MATTERS

The Methodist meeting at Glasgow closed with 21 additions.

The library of Gottingen has a Bible written on palm leaves. There are 5,373 pages each made of a single leaf.

In Christian county, 52 colored converts were baptized by Rev. M. Jenkins. Ten four inches thick had to be cut from the pond.

John M. Studebaker and two other men have given $25,000 with which to cancel a mortgage on the Presbyterian summer school at Winona Lake, Ind.

Rev. George S. Savage, for many years American Bible Society Super- intendent, will fill the new chair of Systematic Bible Study at Kentucky Wes- leyean College.

Louisville has the largest Sunday School in the State. It is at the 22d and Walnut Street Baptist church, and has 35 classes and an average of 450 pupils in attendance.

Vandals got in their work at the Drake's Creek church, near Bowling Green. They tore up the Bible, burned the draperies and otherwise damaged the church property.

The church at Waynesburg has called Rev. Mr. Partin for another year. Mr. E. B. Caldwell, Jr., was unanimously elected Sunday School super- intendent for the 17th time.

A committee from the Nicholasville Presbyterian church has gone to Bloomington, Ill., to receive a legacy of $30,000, left for a public library by Mrs. Sarah Withers, of Bloomington. The library will be under the super- vision of the Presbyterian church.

An effort, headed by Mrs. Frances E. Beauchamp, president of the W. C. T. U., is being made in Lexington to have the city council publish a list of all persons fined for drunkenness and have it posted in saloons so that the keepers will be liable to a fine of $50, if they sell to confirmed drunkards.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy can always be de- pended upon; is pleasant and safe to take. Sold by Craig & Hocker, Drugists.

MIDDLEBURG.

The way hogs have been dying the past few weeks is a caution. John Wheat has shayed 40.

The writer is a school boy once more. We intend to forget "war," "camp life," etc., for awhile at least.

The school at this place is progressing finely. The teachers are women and well understand their business. There are about 100 in attendance.

The students of J. W. L. will render some "Christmas Exercises" at the college Friday evening, 23rd. A supper will be given some time during Christmas week in the interest of the Christian church. Due notice in my next.

Theo Wesley, the popular druggist, will leave this place and set up at Bradfordville about the 26th. G. S. Durham will handle some drugs. The P. O. has already been transferred to the latter. Dr. J. T. Wesley is now P. M., but Mr. Durham will attend to it.

Farmers are done gathering corn and can now enjoy the holidays. The crop of '98 is the best known in years. Wheat outlook for 1899 was never more flattering. Some 15 or 20 bushels of tobacco have been shipped to Louisville lately by Casey farmers, averaging from $8 to $10.

There is a literary society, which meets every Friday night here. The subject for debate is, Resolved: It is Better to Have Loved and Lost Than to Have Never Loved at All. Affirmative, Miss Florence Christopher; negative, Miss Cora Gooch. Society jokes, Clarence Coleman, besides many other interesting pieces.

The five-year-old child of John Sutton was interred in the Middleburg Cemetery Tuesday. It is not known what caused its death, it having been found in bed, stiff and cold in death. It is a singular fact, yet true, that the three last interments that have taken place at the cemetery, were small children, all three having been found dead in bed.

Casey! has the single-tree fever, and it doesn't seem to ebb in the least. Mr. Shukerman, of Smith's Grove, Ky., the inventor and patentee, has been in Casey for two months and has sold about 50 counties to Casey citizens, one man has 23 counties and he could make big money by selling his territory, much less make personal canvass of the territory.

Your correspondent, who resembles a telephone pole much more than a rain barrel, has at last been eclipsed and made a midget by the side of Col. A. A. Powell, advertising agent for Church & Co. The colonel was in town one day last week and he surely was the cause of much comment. He stands 7 feet, 4½ inches in his sock feet and weighs only 275 pounds. He is much slenderer than myself.

Fred Gelatt and wife have moved to the residence on Race street recently vacated by Dr. J. S. Wesley. Mr. G. is a young business man, being interested in the timber business. He came here from Indianapolis. Mr. G. surrendered a $100 per month job to go to war to fight Spain. He was a private in the 27th Indiana battery of light artillery and went to Porto Rico. Mr. Lon Holmes, formerly a merchant of this place, but now connected with a Louisville Stove Co., was in town last week on business. Fred Durham will attend State College. John Tucker, a telegraph operator of Dallas, Texas, visited friends at this place the first of the week. Miss Florence Wesley has returned from visit to her brother, Dr. J. S. Wesley, at Lancaster. Miss May Daugherty, of Casey's Creek, is visiting Miss Della Goobey. Misses Florence Christopher and Cora Gooch will spend Christmas week at their respective homes, Buena Vista and Somerset. Mrs. Malissa McAnloch, who recently fell and broke her arm, is slowly recovering. The populace of Middleburg extend congratulations and best wishes to Rev. Capt. Green, of Georgetown, who married Miss Sue Coleman, of Burgin, last Wednesday. Cotton Cowherd, who has been visiting Leo, Collingsworth, returned to his home in Danville Saturday. Leo, C. accompanied him. Mr. E. S. Wells and wife have moved to Southern Missouri. Mr. Wells is an ex-Federal soldier, a prominent worker and member of the M. E. church, a good citizen and will be greatly missed.

CLARENCE COLEMAN.

A noted madstone, owned by a man at Leesburg, Va., sold at auction for $450. It has belonged in the Fred family for 131 years. The stone is about 1½ inches long, 1½ inches wide, and 1½ inches thick, and it is said has never failed to effect a cure in its entire history.

THAT THROBBING HEADACHE. Would quickly leave you, if you used Dr. King's New Life Pills. Thousands of sufferers have proved their matchless merit for Sick and Nervous Headaches. They make pure blood and strong nerves and build up your health. Easy to take. Try them. Only 25 cents. Money back if not cured. Sold by Penny's Drug Store.

NEWS IN THE VICINAGE.

W. M. Bingham has been appointed postmaster at Pineville.

S. F. Harber, a Madison county farmer, aged 54, died Wednesday.

The jury in the Gooden murder case at Barbourville, failed to agree.

Clayton Leach, a prominent citizen of Adair, died Monday of pneumonia. Judge H. C. Eversole received his commission and was sworn in as circuit judge at Barbourville.

Newton Underwood fell down a flight of steps, a distance of 25 feet, at Nicholasville, and was killed.

Fire gutted the handsome State Bank and Trust Company building at Richmond, recently built at a cost of $25,000.

Edmore Rutt, a member of the 2d Kentucky from Harrodsburg, died at Dr. E. M. Wiley's, his uncle, at Lexington of typhoid fever.

William Mitchell, of Corbin, was tried at Barbourville for shooting and wounded Elijah Carr and given one year in the penitentiary.

S. C. Day, who was shot by Henry Smith in Harlan county on election day, is dead of his injuries. Smith has been rearrested and the charge of murder entered against him.

The annual meeting of the Kentucky Educational Association will be held in Louisville on Dec. 27, 28 and 29. Prof. W. C. Grinstead, of the Danville High School, is down for a paper.

The recently elected Judge Eversole is a brother of the leader of the Eversoles in the French Eversole feud, in which 35 men have lost their lives, and which the State has spent over $200,000 to put down.

Editor Milo Shanks, of the Richmond Pantagraph, has fallen into a good berth in the Government Printing Office. The position came through the civil service, something that rarely happens these days. Courier-Journal dispatch.

Rev. E. O. Guerrant, the distinguished Presbyterian divine, is to lecture at Harrodsburg for the benefit of the Confederate monument, on "Morgan's Last Raid," in which he appears in the suit he wore on that memorable occasion.

Daniel Tudor, of White Hall, missed a turkey hen several weeks ago and had given her up as lost or stolen, but found her one morning last week with a brood of 11 young turkeys. The little fellows, notwithstanding the severe cold weather, are all living and growing rapidly. —Richmond Climax.

MT. VERNON.

T. G. McElmore was fined $10 and jailed for beating his wife.

Sam Davis is getting out the "Davis Enterprise," a paper for Christmas advertising. Mr. Davis runs a saddlery and also a confectionery and will soon build on his lot near the railroad.

Editor Maret went to London Wednesday to arrange for the telephone line at that enterprising town. Quite a number will be placed in houses at Livingston, while in this rushing city we have but one.

Marshal Short took a number of moonshiners to Covington last week. Smith Ping forfeited his bond by arriving there too late for time set for his trial and will have to remain in jail until the May term of court.

We sympathize with our soldiers in their airy tents during this freezing weather. Tom McClure has returned to Anniston after a furlough. W. R. Dillon, of Livingston, is visiting his son, Lient. Lewis Dillon, of the 4th Kentucky, in Alabama. High Miller and wife, unaccompanied by Miss Mae Miller, went to Louisville this week. Tom Miller is here from Lancaster. Dr. Pennington attended the medical meeting at Brodhead. Master John Baker won the medal contest at the college last Wednesday night. Don't forget the contest Friday night by Mr. Josh Horeing's pupils.

The protracted meeting at the Baptist church conducted by Rev. J. B. Cronch, of Stanford, goes on with unabated interest and we doubt not that much good will be done for the Lord by this zealous people. We are pleased to see two of our county officers, County Attorney Colyer and Jailer Griffin, taking an active part in the meeting.

When the political leaders of a county are Christians and show it by their lives, there is some hope for society, however, depraved it may have been in the past.

"Think truly, and your thoughts shall the world's famine feed, Live truly and your life shall be a great and noble creed."

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

Thomas F. Johnson and Miss Narcie Reynolds, both of the Kingsville section, were married this week.

Warren Williams, of Ellsworth, Tenn., has sued for divorce because his wife "fusses" at him so much he can't sleep.

Those who claim to know say that a Stanford young man and a pretty widow of Kingsville will wed during the holidays.

White asleep at her home in Williamsburg, L. I., Mrs. Jas. W. Connor, a bride of two months, had her ear badly bitten by a rat.

Albert Allen, of Christian county, who had just married, returned home with his bride to find the place he had prepared for her and its entire contents in ashes.

Rev. W. S. Grinstead has gone to Winchester to promote the ceremony that will unit in marriage his niece, Miss Ida Wood, and Mr. J. Attersall. —Parts News.

Mrs. Hudnall, the young wife of J. Hudnall, of Warren county, committed suicide Sunday afternoon by jumping head first into a well. She had been showing signs of insanity.

John Howard, of Fleming, Ind., told his wife good-bye saying, "You'll never see me again." Thinking he was in earnest the woman took an overdose of morphine and died from the effects.

William Hanlon, of Bellevue, O., couldn't stand the thought of his sweetheart marrying another fellow and shot himself in the stomach. A few seconds later he was at a doctor's office begging him to save his life.

Mme. Schumann-Heink, the famous contralto singer, gave birth to her eighth child, a son, last Monday night, but she doesn't intend to let so small a matter keep her off the stage, and will resume her place in a few days.

Mrs. George Tanner, wife of the hotel keeper who recently killed himself at Cairo, Ill., ended her own life with a dose of poison. In a letter she says she could not live without her husband. In 1892, Mrs. Tanner, whose maiden name was Katie May Sams, shot and killed Capt. Ransom Sampson, a river man, in the Planters' House, Cairo, Ill. She put two bullets into his head but of a few weeks and then attempted suicide with the same pistol.

Mr. John W. Drye, the clever old bachelor of the West End, has at last surrendered to the wiles of Cupid. The Harrodsburg Sayings tells of his approaching marriage to Miss Anna Witherspoon, one of Mercer's most amiable and accomplished young ladies and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. F. Witherspoon, which will occur at Harrodsburg, Dec. 20. The paper says: Mr. Drye owns a fine farm near Hustonville and is one of Lincoln county's most substantial agriculturists. And it might have added, if it knew the gentleman as well as we do, that he is as clever and accommodating as he is solid and substantial. Our best wishes are extended to him and his prospective.

HUBBLE.

Hog killing and ice gathering occupy the farmers for the last few days.

The turkey slaughtering pens have closed business for this season, and many of the birds are not yet sold on account of the decline in price. J. A. Hammonds at this place will continue to buy them at good prices, if you will call on him.

George Wood has gone to Birmingham to buy some cattle. Dr. Herring presented Dark Ball with a fine boy this week. Dr. L. B. Cook was called to see Mrs. Fannie Ball a few days ago. She has been suffering with rheumatism and heart trouble for some time. Dr. Herring reports Mrs. Jas. Pollard improving after an attack of fever. Ed Miller is down from Mt. Vernon for a few days on his farm here. Miss Annie McKinney's school will close here today, and all are pleased with her teaching. H. B

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL

STANFORD, KY., - DEC. 16, 1898

W. P. WALTON.

SIX PAGES

POLITICS continues to cut a figure in the army management, which has been a scandal and a shame ever since the first volunteers were mustered in. There is no sort of sense in keeping any of the volunteers in the service now, and they would be mustered out, except to keep favorites in fat positions at the expense of the poor fellows who get but $15 a month. This was strikingly demonstrated the other day. In October last John D. White, who then had a show to be elected congressman, wrote to the war department that four-fifths of the 4th regiment, that Col. Colson commands, desired to quit the service as the war was over. The department held up the request till it saw how the cat would jump. It did not jump toward Mr. White and Monday he got a letter from the authorities saying that the matter had been referred to the colonel of the 4th Kentucky, who said the soldiers were "well fed and clothed, and only a few wished to be mustered out." As Colson is a member of Congress and his vote is needed to carry out further raids on the treasury for the army and navy bills and other appropriations, Mr. White very naturally thinks that no further attention will be paid to the appeals of the men, without whom Colson could not parade in regiments and draw two salaries, neither of which he earns.

A REPUBLICAN Congress permits several congressmen to draw two salaries, one for that office and the other as army officers, but the democratic court of appeals of Kentucky is not so prodigal with the people's money. It has decided that Secretary of State Charles Flinley is not entitled to the extra salary of $1,000 he has been drawing for the management of the corporation department and that he must "cough up" what he has already drawn. This may be tough on Flinley, but it seems to be right. Otherwise what is the use of paying an officer a salary and then paying him extra for all he does?

TWO newspapers in one town are as liable to disagree as two wives in one house, but Mr. Sterling presents an exception. Bro. Turner, of the Sentinel-Democrat pays Editor John C. Wood, of the Gazette, high compliments and says if the district is to remain republican he had rather see him re-elected railroad commissioner than any other man. "Personally, Mr. Wood is as clever and genial a gentleman as ever trod shoe leather, and if we can't have a democratic commissioner, Mr. Wood is our choice for the place." It is good for brethren to dwell in such unity.

F. W. GREGORY, who left the Louisville Commercial, to take charge of the Paducah Daily Sun, has had a rough initiation into rural journalism. He called Editor J. E. Robertson, of the Daily News, a blackmailer and the latte-beat him with a walking cane. Twon't do for city chaps to try bluffs on the rural rooster. They won't work, but will be called every time, whereas city people get used to being called bad names by the newspapers and do not resent it.

DURING all the stirring events of 1898 has anybody heard of the vice president? As an exchange remarks, he has kept himself "buried in the obscurity of his great office." — Hopkinson Kentuckian. This reminds us that when asked who the vice president is the other day, we couldn't recall to save our life. Others may be similarly affected so we will state for their benefit that his name is Garrett A. Hobart and that he hails from New Jersey.

SPEAKING of Atlanta's blow out, the Louisville Times is moved to remark: "We haven't made any particular blow about it, but in the matter of peace jubilees, as in the other things of life, Louisville has a way of being right up at the head of the procession." Lord, Lord, forgive the liar.

EDITOR KNOTT, of the Louisville Post, calls Editor Watterson, of the Courier-Journal, a financial phibulist, and now if Editor Watterson will call Editor Knott a politicker, and both go and take a drink all will be forgiven.

It is reported that Secretary Bliss of the Interior Department, will soon resign. We'll lay $5 down and count them one by one that his name will be Blister and he will burst, before he does anything so reckless.

THE Louisville Dispatch sees in the Courier-Journal's hearty welcome to Col. Castleman and his gallant regiment the ulterior design of boosting its colonel for governor, aia Roosevelt. How bad!

HERE'S a crumb of comfort for Christmas times. The democrats swept Boston in a municipal election for minor offices Tuesday. Let us be thankful for small favors and large ones in proportion.

IT was meet that Mr. Watterson, whom we heard so eloquently speed the Louisville Legion on its parting, at Lexington, should welcome its return. His was the bouquet of the numerous speeches at the auditorium in Louisville Tuesday night and while his assertion that he would like to see Dewey president, Wheeler or Lee vice president, and "Castleman succeed his dear friend Bradley up yonder at that little hole-in-the-wall under that hill" cracked somewhat of politics, his exuberance was in keeping with the glad occasion and nobody but a dyspeptic will cavil. Castleman is a good man and would make a good governor, and many of his friends besides Mr. Watterson would be glad to see him so honored. The other speakers were Major Weaver, Gen. Simon Bolivar Buckner, Bishop Dudley, Augustus E. Willson and E. J. McDermott and all, especially Buckner and Dudley, arose above expectations. The parade was the largest ever seen in the city and the banquet by the Ladies' Auxiliary a sumptuous one. All the exercises attending the welcome were royally conceived and faithfully carried out. The papers have blown and bellowed long and long over the occasion and now let us have peace. There can be even too much of a good thing.

THE peace jubilee is on at Atlanta, which progressive city, is putting on its best airs. President McKinley is there preaching that sectional lines and sectional feelings are obliterated, while in practice he does everything to keep both fresh and fuming, for didn't he appoint a Negro internal revenue collector there? Lord, how this world is giving to lying and what a liar your Uncle Billy McKinley is.

By writing the letter he did to W. E. Thompson, when he was appointed an election commissioner under the Gobell law, South Triable, of Frankfort, shows that he has too little sense to represent that constituency again and he will likely catch it in the neck. The letter said in effect that Thompson should not accept the office, since much dirty work would have to be done.

HOW has the mighty fallen! The Louisville Critic, which was thought cheap at $5,000 when D. E. O'Sullivan's caustic pen wrote its editorials, was sold this week to John W. Vreeland for $100 and was high at that.

POLITICAL POINTS.

Mr. Bailey is going to see that Wheeler, Colson and the other army officers do not exercise the privileges of members of Congress.

Col. I. B. Nall is again announced as a candidate for the democratic nomination for commissioner of agriculture. He went down with Hardin in 1896.

The Atlanta Journal says: "It is said that Japan is willing to pay us $200,000,000 for the Philippines. If we get such an offer and do not jump at it, we will be a very foolish people."

When the present session of Congress is concluded, Thomas B. Reed will have had 22 years of continuous service as a representative from the 1st Maine district, six of which he has been speaker.

The appellate court adjourned for the holidays yesterday, and when it reconvenes Judge Hazelrigg will sit as chief justice, and Judge-elect J. P. Hobson will take the seat on the bench vacated by Chief Justice Lewis.

There will be neither repeal nor modification of the war revenue law at this session of Congress, according to a statement made by Representative Dingley, who thereby admits that his protection tariff bill is not a money raiser.

After Congressman Joe Bailey was forced to decline the invitation to respond to the toast "There is no minority party in patriotism," Congressman Evan Settle was asked to do so, and accepting, went to Atlanta with the presidential party.

Representative Walter Evans will be an applicant for the office of Commissioner of Internal Revenue in case Commissioner Scott should be elected senator in West Virginia. That is better than doing the baby act like Davison by contesting for a seat won by somebody else.

Col. Bryan, having cured himself of "military lockjaw" by resigning, is moved to say: The imperialistic idea is directly antagonistic to the idea and ideals which have been cherished by the American people since the signing of the Declaration of Independence. Our nation must give up any intention of entering upon a colonial policy (such as is now pursued by European countries), or it must abandon the doctrine that governments derive their just powers from the consent of the governed. Jefferson has been quoted in support of imperialism, but our opponents must distinguish between expansion in the Western hemisphere and an expansion that involves us in the quarrels of Europe and the Orient. They must still further distinguish between expansion which secures contiguous territory for future settlement and expansion which secures us alien races for future subjection. Jefferson favored the annexation of necessary contiguous territory on the North American continent, but he was opposed to wars of conquest and expressly condemned the acquiring of remote territory.

BRIEF NEWS NOTATION.

Vance has been mentally afflicted ever since, and periodically resorted to extreme intoxication. He was in that condition when he dropped dead.

Johnson Franklin, who killed his mother-in-law in Barren county, is on trial at Glasgow and his wife, who is present, says she hopes the jury will hang him.

Later, Franklin was given a death sentence. So Glasgow is likely to have a double hanging.

The coldest weather in 27 years has prevailed at New Orleans. The mercury was below freezing and the orange groves south of the city were badly damaged, and the fruit, much of which has been picked and put in crates, was slightly frozen. The trees in many places were so badly frozen that the buds will be killed for the time being.

Forty moonshiners, seven of them women, were convicted by the federal court at Covington.

In reversing a judgment against the Louisville Tobacco Warehouse Company, the court of appeals knocked out what are known as private corporation indictments pending in the court below against nearly 100 private corporations for failing to report to the auditor. The court holds that the failure to report was not willful.

Bob Brewer, the notorious halfbreed outlaw who killed four men at Jessup, Ga., on Christmas, 1889, and precipitated a riot that cost 12 prisoners their lives, was captured at Johnston Station, Ga., after a desperate battle. Brewer fell with 41 buckshot in his body, but is alive, and efforts will be made to keep him for trial.

WAR ECHOES.

The Cuban commission says it will take 80,000 soldiers to garrison Cuba.

A returned nurse says that our soldiers at Manila are dying by the scores for the want of proper nourishment.

Lieut. Desha Breckinridge has received an honorable discharge from the United States volunteer army, and will return to the Lexington Herald.

Sixty-five members of Company L, 1st Kentucky regiment, are to be court-martialed for signing a petition asking for Lieut. Millward's resignation.

For the release of Spanish prisoners held by them, the Filipinos demand of Spain the $20,000,000 she is to receive from Uncle Sam as payment for the Philippine Islands.

The 3d, 4th, 12th, 17th and 20th regiments of regular infantry have been detailed for service in the Philippines, relieving as many regiments of volunteers.

Commissary Gen. Fagan says that soldiers should have beer as a part of their daily rations. In the interests of the men he said he would be willing to incur the hostility of the blue ribbon societies.

Gen. Ludlow has been appointed military governor of the city of Havana, succeeding Gen. Greene, who is to be retired. Gen. Lee will be in control of the province of Havana, and Gen. Brooke will be military governor of the island.

The battleship Texas, armored cruiser Brooklyn and the gunboats Castine and Resolute have been ordered to join the armored cruiser New York at Havana. The order sending them there was prompted by the riots during the last few days.

The whirligig of time goes fearfully fast these days and sometimes brings its revenges. Only a few months ago, Gen. Lee was hissed out of Havana. Now he returns with beating drums and flying banners to teach the gospel of a better civilization.

William Osborne, who went to Aniston with the 4th Kentucky, was killed by J. F. Gill, with whom he boarded. Osborne came in drunk, waving a pistol and threatening to kill the entire Gill family, all of whom were in bed when Gill let him have it in the head with an axe.

The solemn requiem mass of the Catholic church was performed over the remains of Gen. Calixto Garcia at St. Patrick's church, and the body of the distinguished Cuban leader was committed to the vault in the National cemetery at Arlington. All the honors of war that could be meted out to a National hero, were bestowed by this government upon the lion-hearted old Cuban.

Another clash took place Sunday night between the Spaniards and Cubans in Havana. On hearing of the death of Garcia, the Cubans attempted to close places of amusement, and a riot was soon in progress. Three Cubans were killed, one Spanish officer and two Cubans wounded, and 14 others received minor hurts. The appearance of Gen. Greene in uniform caused the Spaniards and Cubans alike to salute and retire.

The insurgents in the Philippines are making war on the Catholics. The bishop was subjected to the grossest indignities. The friars were beaten with sticks, kicked and hung up in the torrid sun for several hours. The natives were forbidden to render the friars any assistance. During their greatest suffering, while hanging hungry and naked in the burning sun, Chinese and natives furiously supplied them with food and water. The nuns in the convents were subjected to shameless treatment.

Again the streets of Havana have rung with the murderous fire of Spaniards and Cubans. The funeral of Capt. Jesus Sotolongo, one of the slain of Sunday night, was made the occasion for another outbreak, in which, as before, the Spanish soldiers proved themselves uncontrollable, and the administration unable to preserve order in the city. The dead body on its way to burial was made the center of a fierce struggle, and the mourners leaped from their carriages, revolvers in hand, to join in the fray. It is known that seven persons at least were seriously wounded.

Wonders of the Age.
In these days of new methods and appliances, photography has become an art known and used the world over. Thousands of pictures are taken every day, of people and things, and nearly all the wonder at it has died away. No one is nowadays prevented from having his illness handled down to posterity, and strange and interesting things are explained far more readily and exactly to the minds of men than can be done by pen or pencil. It is rather a source of regret that knowledge of the art did not exist in the centuries that have gone. Then might the world at the present time know more of what has gone before. A snap shot of Demosthenes addressing the Athenians, or of Socrates and his disciples, would be most interesting, and a photo of honest Will Shakespeare might do away with much discussion about mooted paintings and busts. But of late years, things still more wonderful to us have come to pass. Not only is it easy to impress the appearance of men upon the negative, but their every movement can now be recorded for reproduction on subsequent occasions. What this means, we have not yet come to realize, but we sit in open-eyed wonder, beholding men walking and horses running and ships steaming away over the seas. Already, many of those whose living pictures have been taken have passed away from the scenes of action, and yet it is possible to see them walking and talking as of yore. This saviors of witchcraft, and yet still more marvelous things are in store for us. The tones of the human voice are preserved in the rolls of the phonograph. It will not be long before a new invention will record the sights and their accompanying sounds at the same time. One can then press a button and hear and see the production of an opera, or hear again the advice and see the features of his ancestors who have long since gone the way of all mankind. Well may we ask ourselves what the end of it all is to be.

Prof. Weber, of the Ohio state university, has made a prolonged study of the effect of light as a factor in sugar production, and his numerous experiments with reference to the influence of light on the sugar contents of plants are of peculiar scientific interest. He has found that plants with a long period of vegetation are not so much affected by climatic changes, location, etc., as those of a short period of vegetation. For the latter, therefore, the conditions named are to be specially cared for in order to secure the product. Higher latitudes are found to be better for sugar production than lower ones, other things being equal, and the proximity of large bodies of water is most favorable to sugar production. The topographical features of the land are also of importance in locating sugar factories in the most convenient place to that of production, in order to insure the greatest success.

A special from Emporia, Kan., says that it has been recalled there, by the suicide of H. C. Cross, president of the defunct national bank of that place, that Cross' father was, about 50 years ago, connected with a bank at Springfield, Ill., and that upon the failure of the institution one of the depositors, an old man by the name of Cary, stood up in the streets of Springfield and invoked a curse upon the house of Cross. This story is vouched for by George Plum, brother of former United States Senator Plum, to whom it was related by the son of the old man who delivered the curse. Whatever the merit of this reminiscence, it is true that the elder Cross suffered many reverses and that the efforts to discharge them involved the younger Cross in speculations and led to his tragic death.

The value, physically and spiritually, of football training was pretty effectively illustrated at New Haven, Conn., the other day when Rev. George R. Cutten, center on Yale's eleven, walked five miles through a blinding blizzard to keep his appointment and deliver a sermon to students. A preacher like that is pretty likely to score with such an audience.

For the Pleasure of Others.

It is the desire and effort to contribute to the happiness of others that makes Christmas the most delightful of all our holidays. Children, at first, perhaps, think most of the gifts that they may receive, but every wise parent teaches the child to be a giver as well as a receiver, and to find the deeper joy of the Christmas time in doing something for the pleasure of some one else. The maxim: "It is more blessed to give than to receive," is one of those beautiful statements that it is easy to approve, but one never knows how true it is until he finds it verified in experience. Then a new fountain of joy opens in the heart and a new way of life is disclosed. We often make the mistake of thinking that "giving" consists in the bestowment of some material thing. But it really consists in devotion to another of what we have. It may be money or time or skill or thoughtfulness or patience. There is no one so poor that he cannot give something. That is the real joy of Christmas time. If we carried the Christmas spirit into all the days of the year we should make life infinitely sweeter and happier.—Boston Watchman.

Clover sickness, a common disease that often ruins clover crops, has caused German scientists to make experiments. They now say that farmers will soon be able to inoculate their lands just as human beings may be treated.

A recent report says that gold is being found all over Ohio. And yet the people of that state are fooling away their time at the various trades and industries.

OLD-TIME CHRISTMAS.

The Wonderful Changes That Have Been wrought During the Last Half Century.

The Christmas of 1847 was a simple and tender affair, consisting mainly of Santa Claus and well-filled stockings. The presents were home-made, with a few added sweetmeats and toys. Think of the changes! An orange was a sight more rare than custard-apples are now. A banana I do not remember having seen before 1850. Farmers used old flintlocks to shoot the squirrels for a Christmas pie—or what we used to call the "Queen's arms." These were British muskets, captured during the revolution. The first breech-loader was patented in 1836; but they were not in common use. We went in thick stoga boots because rubbers were barely known; and I do not think a rubber boot was in existence. What we had were a sort of Indian mocassin imported from Brazil, capable of wearing for ten years. The first Good-year patent was taken out in 1835. About the same time the first machine was put in operation for making pins, while for pens we used goose-quills or even hen-quills. It was, however, a peculiarly inventive period. All the knick-knacks that are most familiar to us were then novelties and costly. A bunch of pins in a Christmas stocking was not despised. If a box of matches could have been had it would have been a welcome gift from Santa Claus.

The stockings were hung up by the huge old fireplace, where great logs burned and coals were covered up at night. In rural sections we had never seen a scuttle of coal, and had only heard of it as an effort to burn black stones. Whale-oil lamps marked the advanced line of progress in lighting streets and houses. There was no dream of canned fruits and cocoanut and chocolate, although we had plenty of tea and coffee. It was impossible to give a sewing machine or a photograph. Daguerreotypes were not devised until 1839; and the first were taken in America at least a year later. I remember when Avery, who took the first sun picture west of Albany, carried it up and down the streets, flushed with his first success; and ran into house after house to exhibit it. It was a ghostly affair, to be squinted at and guessed out; but after all it was the beginning of a great art.

The presents were fuller of affection because homely. The whole family had been at work for weeks planning and executing little gifts. The boys made boxes and toys and hand sleds. The women made stockings and mufflers and dainty caps, while the girls made slippers, and the fathers made shoes. A home was a word that meant great things in those days; for both the women and the men had trades, as well as a knack and a knowledge of land culture. It is interesting to note that some of our best observers and social students prophesy a large reaction from our present fast and uneasy age to the quiet and calm of those earlier days of the century. Of course we shall not give up our inventions; but with them we may lose our boyish excitement, and react to another period of reconsideration. This has been the history of the past. Eras of restless aggression have been followed by periods of reflection. We could do all that is necessary for a happy social state with less of wear, and less of nerve friction. Will electricity help us in this direction? We believe it will.

The most delightful part of these old-time holidays was the sports, pure and free from every guile. Our evenings were always at home; and in the one great family room, which was the dining-room and the kitchen in one, we gathered before the huge fire of logs and had that sort of unadulterated fun which can be had only where the whole family is united. We parched our home-grown corn, and made our candy of molasses, and played simple games, in which no one joined more heartily than the father and the mother. The evenings lasted from candle lighting until nine o'clock. No child was ever permitted to absent himself from the household after dark without the direction of his parents. But after nine o'clock no one ever thought of being absent. Then we were all in our beds. If we react to these or to simpler methods of living it will be by a resurrection of more home life. Let us see to it that the farm home is more of a home, and the farmhouse family more self-contained.—E. P. Powell, in N. Y. Independent.

THE HAVANA LIMITED.

The first American railway to announce train service for the special benefit of travel to the West Indies has been heard from. The Queen & Crescent Route are announcing a fast train known as the "Florida and Havana Limited." It will go into service from Cincinnati to Tampa, Jacksonville, Miami, Mobile and New Orleans. This exponent of the genuine American idea of getting into the field early will be a complete vestibuled service, with diners, observation cars, wide vestibules, electric headlights, and all the paraphernalia of the modern railroad train. It is chiefly to be marked as being first in the field for the new territory which is just coming under the protection of the greatest flag on earth. Train will make fast time to ports named and will connect with fine steamer service to various ports in Cuba, Porto Rico and Jamaica. It marks a new era in railroading in this country.

Wednesday, Dec. 21, 1898

Offer for sale at the court-house door in Stanford, Ky., 48 Lincoln County bonds, said bonds to be issued in three series, to wit: Series "A" series "B" and series "C." Series "A" embracing $12,000 and consists of 12 bonds of $500 each and numbered 1 to 12 and six bonds for the sum of $1,000 each and numbered 13 to 18. Series "B" embracing $15,000, consisting of 15 bonds for the sum of $1,000 each and numbered 19 to 33 and Series "C" embracing $15,000 of said bonds of $1,000 each and numbered 34 to 48.

The bonds embraced in series "A" shall be redeemable at the pleasure of the court in and after five years from the date of their issue and shall be due and payable 10 years from said date. Series "B" shall be redeemable at the pleasure of the court in and after 10 years from the date of their issue and due and payable 15 years from said date. Series "C" shall be redeemable at the pleasure of the court in and after 20 years from the said date. The bonds to be sold will bear interest at the rate of 4 percent per annum, payable semi-annually on Jan. 1st, and July 1st, of each year, the bonds will bear date Jan. 1st, 1899. Any redemption of said bonds before their maturity shall be made according to the series and serial number of the bonds beginning with bond No. 1 series "A." Said bonds and coupons will be payable at the Lincoln County National Bank of Stanford, Ky., bonds to be redeemed on Jan. 1st, and July 1st, of each year, and upon 30 days previous notice given by the county judge to Lincoln County National Bank, of said court's intention to redeem any of the bonds as herein provided, said bonds shall cease to bear interest after said date. Sale of said bonds will be for cash to the highest and best bidder and will be offered in lots from $1,000 with privilege of $5,000 until all bonds have been sold. The committee reserving the privilege of offering the bonds will be the one to determine the bid realizing the most money. Said bonds are sold unconditional and no interest desired must be paid for by parties asking same. Witness our signatures this Dec. 21st, 1898.

Your doctor gives you the right prescription, but unless it is properly filled, you can't reasonably expect good results. It is always accurately prepared and of the very best material at Penny's Drug Store.

PERSONAL AND SOCIETY GOSSIP.

Mrs. J. S. Reed went to Louisville yesterday.

Mrs. Ed Peyton is visiting Mrs. A. E. Gibson in Davy.

J. S. Reed has rented the cottage advertised by A. B. Florence.

Mr. J. M. Mount of LaGrange, was with friends here yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Martin are visiting relatives in Midway.

Carroll Portman, who has a store in Lexington, is visiting his parents here.

AMP Broaddus left Wednesday for Lincoln county, New Mexico, to locate.

MISS MARIE WARREN left yesterday to visit her aunt, Mrs. Dr. Elkin, in Atlanta.

WILLIAM KISSICK, of Lexington, spent several days with Mrs. William Hamilton.

Mr. J. S. Bledsoe is back from a pleasant visit to his grand daughter in Covington.

Mr. J. G. Martin is recovering from a surgical operation performed a few days ago.

Mrs. G. A. Lackey and Dr. P. W. Logan were registered at Louisville hotels Tuesday.

Mrs. William Monks and son, Robert, took their final leave for Lexington Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. McRae will move to the up-stairs rooms at Dr. W. N. Craig's, Jan. 1.

J. L. Anderson, of Washington, D. C., arrived Wednesday to spend Christmas with his homefolks.

Mr. Thomas M. Dowdley came up from Bowling Green yesterday to spend a few days with the homefolks.

Mark Hardin and wife attended the marriage of his brother, Joe Hardin, to Miss Curd, of Somerset, Wednesday.

Mr. Bedell Chancellor drove the only sleigh that we saw this snow. He came into town behind a fleet span and took a number of his friends a spin.

Mr. H. N. Ware is up from Washington county to see his mother. He farces in that county and lives at Lebanon where his children are being educated.

Miss Eulau Jean Wallace, who has been visiting Miss Isabella Bailey, left Wednesday for Fort Smith, Ark., much to the regret of the many friends she made here.

Dr. P. W. Carter, Jr., was bid a tearful adieu by his family and friends Wednesday, when he left for West Cliff, Colo., to locate for the practice of his profession. Dr. Carter is a splendid dentist, as well as an excellent young man and we hope he will find as warm friends in the wild west as he leaves in Kentucky.

J. W. Brown, Esq., who has been at Aransas Pass, Texas, for eight years, was intro. on Tuesday, looking just as young as he used to be. Texas seems to have served him well, but he thinks Mt. Vernon too good a place to leave forever and will settle down there to practice law and roam no more. His wife will remain in Texas till next spring.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS.

CHRISTMAS diamonds at Hamilton's.

RINGS, bracelets, watches, &c. Hamilton.

LAMPS from $2 to $10 at Warren & Shanks'.

Stop at Reed's stable when you go to Danville court Monday.

ANYTHING you want in sterling silver novelties at Hamilton's.

GOOD line of rings at reduced prices for Christmas presents. Severance & Sons.

DON'T let the new year catch you owing for your paper, but come at once and let me give you a receipt.

The statement that Mr. R. T. Mattingly had sold his place to Dr. Davison seems to have been a mistake.

POLK MILLER, the finest delineator of Negro character in the country, is booked to appear here in January.

D.E.—Several of our enterprising farmers, including Mr. Bedell Chancellor, gathered good four-inch ice Wednesday.

FULL line of pretty and stylish sterling silver novelties at Mrs. A. A. McKinney & Miss Mary Bruce's. Call and see them.

AN Uncle Tom's Cabin Co. is storming the State, but thank goodness it hasn't asked the manager of the Opera House here for a date yet.

AN examination for diplomas of graduation of pupils in common school branches will be held the last Thursday in January and June, '99. G. Singleton.

WINDOW lights, putty, etc., at Craig & Hocker's.

JUST received a full stuck flooring, ceiling and finishing. A. L. Sine.

BEGINNING Jan. 1, 1899, my terms will be strictly cash, which means I will credit nobody. A. S. Price, Dentist.

MCKINNEY boasts a lady undertaker. Miss Jennie Huston is manager there of Mr. G. R. Jeter's branch undertaking establishment and makes a capital one.

THE L. & N. will sell round triptickets for the holidays at 1½ fares. Sale Dec. 22 to 25 and 30, 31 and Jan. 1, good to return Jan. 4.

GILBERT.—Wm. N. Gilbert, brother of Mrs. C. Vanoy, died Monday night of pneumonia, aged 65. He had been a complete imbecile all his life.

WE have only six nice collarettes which we offer at half price. This is a great loss to us, but goods must be sold and not carried over. Severance & Sons.

FOR Christmas presents you can find at W. W. Winters' something both useful and ornamental in Rocking Chairs, Rugs, Center Tables, Writing Desks, &c.

HOLIDAY goods of every description, candy in great variety, fruits of almost every kind, toys in endless variety and oysters, celery, &c., in abundance, John H. Meier.

FIRE works of all kinds, toys in endless variety, bon-bons of kinds of candy and a big line of Santa Claus' supplies generally at Mrs. J. T. Sutton's, near Hustonville.

WE send six pages with this issue and will print eight next time. If you have anything to advertise and want people to know where you are at, send in your advertisement early.

A CUPBOARD in the St. Asaph Hotel dining room was discovered on fire Monday night, but the flames were extinguished before much damage was done. The origin is a mystery.

MARK HARDIN sought to economize by stopping his display advertisement in this paper. It took him only a few weeks to find it poor economy, so he begins this issue with another. Read it.

STORE BURNED.—W. S. Cain's store at Eubanks burned Tuesday night, causing a loss of about $1,500. The building was owned by Dr. Ed. Aleorn, of Hustonville, and was insured for $300. Cain had $1,000 on his stock.

THE Baker trial, for the murder of Sheriff Will White, of Clay county, was called at Barbourville and continued till next spring on account of absent witnesses. The prisoners will doubtless be returned to the jail here.

SOME son-of-a-gun left his horse hitched back of J. K. VanArdale & Son's store Monday night and the poor thing shivered there till next morning. Such heartless brutes ought to be doing time in the penitentiary for cruelty to animals.

HURT.—A piece of coal fell on Fliegen J. R. McPherson's head as he was working on his engine at Corbin Tues. eve, cutting an ugly gash in his head and rendering him unconscious for several hours. An artery was also cut and he suffered great loss of blood.

THE "plizen" square, W. A. Coffey, and a jury fined W. R. Lipe, of McKinney, $20 each in three cases for selling an intoxicant similar to beer, but labeled "Extract of Rice." He couldn't pay it and is spending these cold days in jail. C. C. Smith was also fined $10 for selling illegally. He will appeal his case.

THE list of chancery, which is to be published as a Christmas serial story, begins in this issue. There are many columns of it and many more to follow, where many a man will see for the first time his name in print and experience that delightful feeling told of by Byron, who remarked on one occasion: "Tis pleasant, sure, to see one's name in print, a book's a book although nothing isn't."

CURCH SOCIAL.—There will be a church social at the Christian church next Saturday, 17th, from 2 to 4 p. m., to which every member of the congregation is cordially invited. The ladies will serve light refreshments. All who feel disposed are requested to bring with them a suitable offering for the Orphans' Home in Louisville. Let no one stay away, as a general reunion of the members is much desired and will be much enjoyed.

REMEMBERING our experience of 10 years ago next Sunday, when we fell on the icy sidewalk and broke a thigh, we take the middle of the street when the pavements are as slick as glass. On the way to our office Wednesday 11 people remarked, "You are a middle-of-the-road man I see now," while one fair, fat and forty girlie said with emphasis: "I'd hate to be so old and rickety, I couldn't walk on the pavement." But we passed on in silence, meditating on the vanities of life, the number of wits there are in the world and old maids who have missed the chance to make some poor fellow miserable.

Mrs. W. M. Matheny sold 60 turkeys to J. K. Christian & Co. for $60, or 7c a pound.

CHASE & SANBORN's coffee, always fresh, at Higgins & McKinney's.

WILL take corn in exchange for harness, saddles, lap robes, &c. J. C. McClary.

WIDE OPEN.—Our Holiday goods are and we have a dazzling display. Warren & Shanks.

NICE assortment of Lamps, Dinner Sets, Chamber Sets, Salad Dishes, &c., at Higgins & McKinney's.

DON'T forget to have your picture taken at Earp's art gallery when you come to Stanford during the holidays.

OF course the liquor men of Elkhorn will contest the election, which showed a majority of 121 against them. They always do it.

THOSE owing the old firm of Cash & McClary are earnestly requested to call at J. K. VanArdale & Son's store and settle at once. H. D. McClary.

10 BELOW.—George Weatherford telephoned us from Hustonville Wednesday that the best thermometer in town registered 10 below zero that morning.

R. W. HUNTER, of the Knobball Music House, Lexington, will be in Stanford some time during the holidays. Those of his patrons, and others wishing first-class piano work, may leave orders at this office.

BABY BURNED.—The little girl of Mabelle Greenlee, colored, caught fire while playing with matches yesterday and was badly burned about the breast and face. Dr. W. N. Craig was called to dress the burns, which, while serious, are not likely to prove fatal.

W. H. BRADY's store is now loaded down with everything good to eat. Prices high as a kite. Stick and mixed candy 75c a pound; oranges $5 a dozen; bananas $2 dozen; nuts $1 pound and everything else in proportion. If you want to get robbed call in.

FOR GAMING.—Babe Bensford, Cornelius Stokesley, Tom Kennedy, Will Lovelace, Bill Begle and John Smith, all colored, who were indicted last grand jury for gaming, were arrested yesterday and will be tried before Judge Bailey today. Lovelace gave bond, but the others are in jail.

CHANGED CLOTHES.—Mrs. James Swayne is in jail at Williamsburg, having permitted her husband to don her clothes and leave his cell, when she went to visit him. Swayne was in prison for stealing and while the devotion of his wife is to be commended, the carelessness of the jailer deserves condemnation.

THE signal service sent two dispatches about the cold wave which came Tuesday night sending the mercury to 3 below zero. It was very cold all day Wednesday but yesterday morning at 6, the mercury had crawled up to 17. It moderated very much during the day and today it will be still warmer, with threatening weather.

MAD DOGS.—On Thanksgiving day an old dog, which had been in William Corder's family at Rowland for years, went mad and it was promptly killed. It bit another dog belonging to him, however, and Tuesday it developed rabies. Mr. Corder and son, John, were both slightly bitten by him before he joined the one above and the latter fearing hydrophobia went to McKinney and had Mrs. Anne Dudderar's famous mad stone applied. It failed to adhere after repeated trials and both father and son have ceased to feel alarmed.

FRANCIS.—Sorrow's cup of sorrow for Mr. S. V. Rowland, was full to overflowing before, but he is called to drink it and more to the dregs. In a few short months he has followed to the grave a loved wife, a worthy daughter-in-law and a worthy son-in-law, and now his only sister is taken. Mrs. Eliza Rowland Francis, mother of Gov. Francis, of Missouri, died at her home in St. Louis Monday, aged 70. Truly Mr. Rowland's sorrows tread upon each other so fast they follow, but sustained by an unfaltering trust in God he can say with simple faith: "The Lord gave and the Lord has taken away: blessed be the name of the Lord."

SET ASIDE.—Judge Parker set aside the verdict found by the Lexington jury which gave Fireman Tannehill $1,500 damages against the Cincinnati Southern. He testified that on Aug. 5, 1897, while he was firing an engine in King's Mountain tunnel, he was severely burned in the face and eyes and his throat badly injured by flames which burst out of the fire box of the engine, and that he swallowed a quantity of the flames. On the other hand the railroad's witnesses testified that the plaintiff was not in the tunnel and was never injured at all, and that the testimony of the doctors showed that the plaintiff did not consult a physician until some nine days after he had said he had been injured. It was very evident there was gross perjury somewhere. Judge Parker said he was greatly surprised by the verdict, and he believed everybody else who heard the testimony, except the jury who rendered it, was also surprised.

CHRISTMAS DAY.

The following is by a Lincoln county boy, who is too modest to let us tell his name:

Christmas time is here again,
 And happy are we all,
 When we hear the turkey gobble,
 Give its most melodious call.
 For we know ho's getting fatter
 And will make the table groan,
 When ho's placed upon the platter
 And we eat without a moan.
 Oh! it sets my head to whirlin',
 And I can't stay in one spot,
 When the turkey's on the table
 And the "puddin'" in the pot.

Then we give thanks to God above,
 For lucky are we all,
 Who live to praise this God of love
 And hear the dinner call.

To church we go and pray to Him
 That we may prosperous be,
 And that this day to others may
 Be what it is to me.

Oh! then we see just how we stand,
 And happy is our lot,
 Who have turkey on the table
 And "puddin'" in the pot.

A NARROW ESCAPE.

Thankful words written by Mrs. Ada E. Hart, of Giveton, S. D. "Was taken with a bad cold, which settled on my lungs; coughed it in and finally terminated in Consumption. Four doctors gave me up, saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Doctor, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. I gave it a trial, took in all eight bottles. It has cured me, and thank God, I am saved and now a well and healthy woman." Trial bottles free at Penny's Drug Store, regular size 50c and $1.00. Guaranteed or price refunded.

Mrs. Elizabeth Williams, mother of Hon. M. Deorange Williams, who was the late democratic candidate for Congress from the 9th district, died at her home and was taken to Cincinnati for burial.
